Attachment "A"

On April 21, 2018 at approximately 1230 pm, Gladet LOERA arrived at the Hidalgo Port of Entry (POE), Texas, driving a 2006 Chevrolet Trailblazer with her were her two minor children, one seated in the front passenger seat and one sitting in the rear passenger seat. During primary inspection, the Customs and Border Protection Officer (CBPO) conducted an interagency records check which revealed the vehicle was suspected to be involved in drug smuggling. The vehicle was referred to secondary for an intensive examination and search for contraband prior to entering the United States. During secondary inspection CBPOs discovered nine (9) bundles of a controlled substance that field tested positive for properties of cocaine weighing 10.24 kilograms within a hidden compartment inside of the vehicle.

LOERA was interviewed by Homeland Security Investigations Special Agent Kyle Pearson and Hidalgo HIDTA Task Force Agent Rodrigo Sampayo. After her Miranda rights were read to her, she readily waived the presence of an attorney and admitted her culpability, stating she knowingly and routinely transports narcotics and is paid $2000 United States Currency per shipment. LOERA stated she transports drugs from McAllen, Texas to the Houston, Texas, one to two times per week. Today, LOERA stated she was travelling to the McAllen, Texas area from Mexico to meet an individual who would conceal drugs inside of the vehicle. LOERA claimed ownership of the vehicle and knowledge of the hidden compartment for the purposes of transporting drugs.
